ROBERTA M. WILSON SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship honors the memory of Roberta M. Wilson (Oglala/Cheyenne) for her life-long personal and professional dedication to Indian education. Roberta M. Wilson's legacy of unwavering commitment lives on in the hearts, minds, and spirits of her students, and in the many lives she touched throughout her life. Roberta M. Wilson's contributions to the advancement of students in higher education continue to inspire, ignite, and motivate those who had the privilege to experience her leadership, wisdom, and guidance. Roberta M. Wilson embodied Lakota virtues and values, exemplifying cultural integrity in all her endeavors. This scholarship recognizes honorable scholars pursuing higher education while upholding their service commitment to their respective tribal community.

Guidelines

Urban Native Education Alliance is a grassroots, volunteer, Native led and student centered 501c3 non-profit. UNEA will be administering the Roberta M. Wilson Scholarship Fund to three students. A selection committee will review and select three scholarship awardees.

Priorities: Seeking students with a record of service/volunteerism in their respective Native communities, leadership, and participation in extracurricular school and/or community (Recreation Center or Boys and Girls Club etc...)

Applicants must have a minimum of a 2.0 GPA (copy of transcripts required), and must demonstrate a financial need (FAFSA copy of need).

Applicants must be enrolled as full time undergraduate students for fall 2022 (minimum 12 credits).

Award will be announced on June 20th, 2022 and dispersed by the end of August 2022.

Application deadline May 30th, 2022. Late or incomplete applications are not accepted.

The applications will be reviewed and recipients selected by a RMW Selection Committee consisting of volunteers and family friends of Roberta M. Wilson
